

On the 7th anniversary of the illegal U.S. invasion of Iraq, WE DEMAND

End the Wars & Occupations Now!

Seven years ago the US invaded Iraq — a war that continues with no end in sight. The US is expanding the war in Afghanistan, spreading it to Pakistan and beyond. The US-backed Israeli siege of Gaza continues.

Now, the Obama administration has introduced a budget that includes the largest amount for “defense” spending ever — while freezing domestic spending for human needs. There is no health care bill, no action on climate change. All Washington can agree on is to feed our tax money to big banks and the war machine.

Fund People's Needs Not Corporate Greed

On the 7th anniversary of the Iraq invasion please join us in a united protest to end the wars and start funding human needs:

5:30 PM — Thursday, March 18

Rally at Federal Plaza

(corner of Adams & Dearborn Streets)

Followed by a march on Michigan Avenue.

And join us in mobilizing for a united march on Washington, DC on Saturday, March 20th.

Buses available from Chicago. For more information about this and other events: www.ChicagoMassAction.org / CCAWR@aol.com
