Teenager, accused of having gay sex, led to the gallows. Iran, July 19, 2005.

with Lesbians and Gays in Iran

LGBT people in Iran face severe repression, including death, for being who they are.

Sam Kosha, a board member of Persian Gay & Lesbian Organization, has courageously spoken out for the rights of gay people in Iran, while at the same time opposing calls for military attacks on his country, recognizing that such attacks have proven to be a complete disaster for all people, gay and straight, in Iraq.

Please join the Gay Liberation Network for a fundraising reception with Mr. Kosha – all proceeds of the reception will go to the Persian Gay & Lesbian Organization to aid its efforts in defending the rights of LGBT people in Iran.

7 PM, Friday, Oct. 6th
at the
Gerber Hart Library
1127 W. Granville Street, Chicago

Suggested donation $10 - $25

The reception will feature remarks from Mr. Kosha, light refreshments, plus an audio visual presentation about the repression of LGBT people around the world. Mr. Kosha will also be one of our featured speakers at the Matthew Shepard March & Rally for LGBT Freedom on the following night: 8 PM, Saturday, October 7th at the corner of Halsted & Roscoe, Chicago.

Please RSVP for the reception by emailing LGBTliberation@aol.com or calling 773.878.3697.

Thank you.
