

Can the Rights of People Simply Disappear by Presidential Order?

A Call to Protest

Tuesday April 20 & Wednesday April 28

Washington, DC at the Supreme Court

1st Street SE and Constitution Avenue

NO to Dangerous Presidential Powers: From Citizen to “Enemy Combatant”

What does it mean when the US military internationally and US police internally can literally snatch people off the street, designate them as “enemy combatants,” and assert that they are beyond the reach of either US or international law? This dangerous new presidentially-designated category of “enemy combatants” who have no legal rights is unjust, illegal, and immoral, and cannot be allowed to stand. Your silence will be taken as assent. Public opposition must be manifested. Join us in front of the US Supreme Court on April 20th and April 28th to declare a resounding NO!

Join R&R! and many other organizations and individuals in front of the U.S. Supreme Court both days:

9:30am-12:30pm, 11am speakers. Legally permitted demonstrations.
