

Peace Pledge-Chicago presents:

Co-sponsored by Women and Children
First Bookstore, Chicago NOW,
Evanston North Shore NOW

An Evening with Laura Flanders

Co-hosted by Salim Muwakkil

Senior editor at In These Times and political commentator

New York Times best-selling author of BUSHWOMEN: Tales of a Cynical Species and Air America host

BUSHWOMEN* is brought to life in a performance piece

Featuring Chicago Actors

Directed by: Dado

Currently the Director of Education for Emerald City Theater Company whose recent directing credits include:
Fahrenheit 451 for Steppenwolf Arts Exchange, The Marriage of Figaro for the Cultural Center of Chicago, The Grey Zone for A Red Orchid Theater, High Life for Victory Gardens/Shattered Globe, Coyote on a Fence for Shattered Globe and The Storefront, Hellcab for Famous Door, The Possessed for Prop/National Pastime and AKA, Take it Deep and Thanatos for AKA,
The Pitchfork Disney for Trapdoor Tracers for Mary Arrchie-Theater

A book signing and reception will follow the performance

MONDAY JUNE 7, 2004

7:00 PM

Lakeshore Theater

3175 N. Broadway

(Belmont stop on the red line)

For tickets, directions, and discounted parking information contact the Lakeshore Theater
773.472.3492

Tickets $15 $12 for seniors, students, & actors w/ a union card or headshot
+ $1 Theater surcharge

I cannot attend but would like to support Peace Pledge-Chicago with a donation. For more information on the Peace Pledge go to www.PeacePledgeChicago.org or call the hotline at 312.494.5840