

Steven Salaita

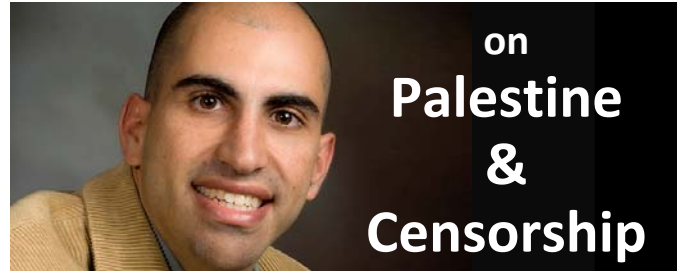

During the recent Israeli slaughter of over 2000 people in Gaza, Professor Steven Salaita bravely spoke out against this barbaric assault and in defense of Palestine. For this, the University of Illinois Board of Trustees purged him from his tenured position, in direct violation of basic norms of academic freedom.

Now Professor Salaita is going on the offensive – against academic censorship, and against the continuing colonial domination of the Palestinian people that this censorship covers for. Hear him speak!

- ★ Monday, October 6 – Northwestern University's Evanston campus, 5 PM, Harris Hall, Room 107 (Harris Hall is the building nearest to the northeast corner of Sheridan Road & Chicago Avenue).
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Illinois at Chicago, 1 PM at the Student Center East, 750 S. Halsted Street, Room 605.
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Chicago, 5:30 PM at the International House, Home Room, 1414 E. 59th Street.
- ★ Wednesday, October 8 – Columbia College, 7 PM, 600 S. Michigan Ave, Room 101, Ferguson Lecture Hall.
- ★ Thursday, October 9 – DePaul University, 4 PM (location TBA).

Professor Salaita's Chicago area tour is organized by the Students for Justice in Palestine chapters at Northwestern University, University of Chicago, Columbia College, DePaul University, and the University of Illinois/Chicago, and the multi-issue LGBT organization Gay Liberation Network. For more information, email LGBTliberation@aol.com Labor donated

Steven Salaita

During the recent Israeli slaughter of over 2000 people in Gaza, Professor Steven Salaita bravely spoke out against this barbaric assault and in defense of Palestine. For this, the University of Illinois Board of Trustees purged him from his tenured position, in direct violation of basic norms of academic freedom.

Now Professor Salaita is going on the offensive – against academic censorship, and against the continuing colonial domination of the Palestinian people that this censorship covers for. Hear him speak!

- ★ Monday, October 6 – Northwestern University's Evanston campus, 5 PM, Harris Hall, Room 107 (Harris Hall is the building nearest to the northeast corner of Sheridan Road & Chicago Avenue).
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Illinois at Chicago, 1 PM at the Student Center East, 750 S. Halsted Street, Room 605.
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Chicago, 5:30 PM at the International House, Home Room, 1414 E. 59th Street.
- ★ Wednesday, October 8 – Columbia College, 7 PM, 600 S. Michigan Ave, Room 101, Ferguson Lecture Hall.
- ★ Thursday, October 9 – DePaul University, 4 PM (location TBA).

Professor Salaita's Chicago area tour is organized by the Students for Justice in Palestine chapters at Northwestern University, University of Chicago, Columbia College, DePaul University, and the University of Illinois/Chicago, and the multi-issue LGBT organization Gay Liberation Network. For more information, email LGBTliberation@aol.com Labor donated

Steven Salaita

During the recent Israeli slaughter of over 2000 people in Gaza, Professor Steven Salaita bravely spoke out against this barbaric assault and in defense of Palestine. For this, the University of Illinois Board of Trustees purged him from his tenured position, in direct violation of basic norms of academic freedom.

Now Professor Salaita is going on the offensive – against academic censorship, and against the continuing colonial domination of the Palestinian people that this censorship covers for. Hear him speak!

- ★ Monday, October 6 – Northwestern University's Evanston campus, 5 PM, Harris Hall, Room 107 (Harris Hall is the building nearest to the northeast corner of Sheridan Road & Chicago Avenue).
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Illinois at Chicago, 1 PM at the Student Center East, 750 S. Halsted Street, Room 605.
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Chicago, 5:30 PM at the International House, Home Room, 1414 E. 59th Street.
- ★ Wednesday, October 8 – Columbia College, 7 PM, 600 S. Michigan Ave, Room 101, Ferguson Lecture Hall.
- ★ Thursday, October 9 – DePaul University, 4 PM (location TBA).

Professor Salaita's Chicago area tour is organized by the Students for Justice in Palestine chapters at Northwestern University, University of Chicago, Columbia College, DePaul University, and the University of Illinois/Chicago, and the multi-issue LGBT organization Gay Liberation Network. For more information, email LGBTliberation@aol.com Labor donated

Steven Salaita

During the recent Israeli slaughter of over 2000 people in Gaza, Professor Steven Salaita bravely spoke out against this barbaric assault and in defense of Palestine. For this, the University of Illinois Board of Trustees purged him from his tenured position, in direct violation of basic norms of academic freedom.

Now Professor Salaita is going on the offensive – against academic censorship, and against the continuing colonial domination of the Palestinian people that this censorship covers for. Hear him speak!

- ★ Monday, October 6 – Northwestern University's Evanston campus, 5 PM, Harris Hall, Room 107 (Harris Hall is the building nearest to the northeast corner of Sheridan Road & Chicago Avenue).
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Illinois at Chicago, 1 PM at the Student Center East, 750 S. Halsted Street, Room 605.
- ★ Tuesday, October 7 – University of Chicago, 5:30 PM at the International House, Home Room, 1414 E. 59th Street.
- ★ Wednesday, October 8 – Columbia College, 7 PM, 600 S. Michigan Ave, Room 101, Ferguson Lecture Hall.
- ★ Thursday, October 9 – DePaul University, 4 PM (location TBA).

Professor Salaita's Chicago area tour is organized by the Students for Justice in Palestine chapters at Northwestern University, University of Chicago, Columbia College, DePaul University, and the University of Illinois/Chicago, and the multi-issue LGBT organization Gay Liberation Network. For more information, email LGBTliberation@aol.com Labor donated