

The next
Supreme Court decision
on LGBTQ rights could be
about much more
than just marriage.

Chicago Rally for LGBTQ Rights

5 PM - April 28th

Federal Plaza, Chicago
Corner of Adams & Dearborn

For information or to endorse, email LGBTliberation@aol.com

The next
Supreme Court decision
on LGBTQ rights could be
about much more
than just marriage.

Chicago Rally for LGBTQ Rights

5 PM - April 28th

Federal Plaza, Chicago
Corner of Adams & Dearborn

For information or to endorse, email LGBTliberation@aol.com

The next
Supreme Court decision
on LGBTQ rights could be
about much more
than just marriage.

Chicago Rally for LGBTQ Rights

5 PM - April 28th

Federal Plaza, Chicago
Corner of Adams & Dearborn

For information or to endorse, email LGBTliberation@aol.com

The next
Supreme Court decision
on LGBTQ rights could be
about much more
than just marriage.

Chicago Rally for LGBTQ Rights

5 PM - April 28th

Federal Plaza, Chicago
Corner of Adams & Dearborn

For information or to endorse, email LGBTliberation@aol.com

On April 28th, the Supreme Court will hear oral arguments about striking down bans on same-sex marriage in four states, with a decision expected in June.

But the Court's deliberations potentially will be about much more than marriage rights. With phony "religious liberty" bills popping up around the country, including in next-door Indiana, our opponents are striking back by attacking our equal access to public accommodations such as businesses, housing, jobs and restrooms.

Let the Court Hear Your Voice!

How the Court decides these issues can be as much about public opinion -- expressed through public demonstrations -- as anything else. LGBTQ people have ALWAYS deserved equal rights, but it's only in recent years with voice from American communities that the courts are responding.

Please show the Supreme Court that you want equal rights by joining us and your neighbors for an equal rights rally in Chicago:

5 PM, Tuesday, April 28

Federal Plaza – corner of Adams & Dearborn

For info or to endorse: LGBTliberation@aol.com

On April 28th, the Supreme Court will hear oral arguments about striking down bans on same-sex marriage in four states, with a decision expected in June.

But the Court's deliberations potentially will be about much more than marriage rights. With phony "religious liberty" bills popping up around the country, including in next-door Indiana, our opponents are striking back by attacking our equal access to public accommodations such as businesses, housing, jobs and restrooms.

Let the Court Hear Your Voice!

How the Court decides these issues can be as much about public opinion -- expressed through public demonstrations -- as anything else. LGBTQ people have ALWAYS deserved equal rights, but it's only in recent years with voice from American communities that the courts are responding.

Please show the Supreme Court that you want equal rights by joining us and your neighbors for an equal rights rally in Chicago:

5 PM, Tuesday, April 28

Federal Plaza – corner of Adams & Dearborn

For info or to endorse: LGBTliberation@aol.com

On April 28th, the Supreme Court will hear oral arguments about striking down bans on same-sex marriage in four states, with a decision expected in June.

But the Court's deliberations potentially will be about much more than marriage rights. With phony "religious liberty" bills popping up around the country, including in next-door Indiana, our opponents are striking back by attacking our equal access to public accommodations such as businesses, housing, jobs and restrooms.

Let the Court Hear Your Voice!

How the Court decides these issues can be as much about public opinion -- expressed through public demonstrations -- as anything else. LGBTQ people have ALWAYS deserved equal rights, but it's only in recent years with voice from American communities that the courts are responding.

Please show the Supreme Court that you want equal rights by joining us and your neighbors for an equal rights rally in Chicago:

5 PM, Tuesday, April 28

Federal Plaza – corner of Adams & Dearborn

For info or to endorse: LGBTliberation@aol.com

On April 28th, the Supreme Court will hear oral arguments about striking down bans on same-sex marriage in four states, with a decision expected in June.

But the Court's deliberations potentially will be about much more than marriage rights. With phony "religious liberty" bills popping up around the country, including in next-door Indiana, our opponents are striking back by attacking our equal access to public accommodations such as businesses, housing, jobs and restrooms.

Let the Court Hear Your Voice!

How the Court decides these issues can be as much about public opinion -- expressed through public demonstrations -- as anything else. LGBTQ people have ALWAYS deserved equal rights, but it's only in recent years with voice from American communities that the courts are responding.

Please show the Supreme Court that you want equal rights by joining us and your neighbors for an equal rights rally in Chicago:

5 PM, Tuesday, April 28

Federal Plaza – corner of Adams & Dearborn

For info or to endorse: LGBTliberation@aol.com