

The next
Supreme Court decision on LGBTQ rights could be about much more than just marriage.

Chicago Rally for LGBTQ Rights

5 PM - April 28th

Federal Plaza, Chicago Corner of Adams & Dearborn

On April 28th, the Supreme Court will hear oral arguments about striking down bans on same-sex marriage nationwide. But the court's decisions could be about much more than marriage.

With phony "religious liberty" bills popping up around the country, we need to press for as sweeping a pro-LGBTQ decision as possible. How the Court decides these issues can be as much about public opinion — expressed through public demonstrations — as anything else.

Please join us for an equal rights rally in Chicago!
